

Dear Safety Professional,

Are you interested in being on a panel at the upcoming 2018 ICPHSO Annual Meeting and Training Symposium in Orlando, Florida, February 20-23, 2018? ICPHSO wants to hear from you!

We are establishing a list of individuals who may be able to participate on panels for our upcoming symposium. As a need becomes available, we will review the expertise you bring and may call on you to assist. While we can't guarantee you will be selected, the best way to let us know of your interest and the expertise you bring to the Symposium, is to fill out the questionnaire.

If you have submitted a proposal for the symposium and have already suggested speakers, you don't need to separately complete this questionnaire--this speaker list will be used by moderators and planners to fill any open positions on their panels.

We look forward to hearing from you and seeing you in Orlando in 2018.

Regards,
