

ICPHSO BREAKING NEWS: December 15, 2017

The 2018 ICPHSO Annual Meeting and Training Symposium in Orlando, Florida, February 20-23, 2018, will be the location for the signing of a historic Tri-lateral Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) on Product Safety by representatives from Health Canada, PROFECO and the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission. This MOU between Canada, Mexico, and the United States further establishes the ongoing relationship between the three North America agencies that are responsible for product safety.

Be a witness to history! Don't miss the historic MOU signing on Thursday afternoon, February 22, 2018, during "International Day" activities at the Symposium. Register for the Symposium today at: Annual Symposium Registration.
